Message from our president Helen Taubman

I am pretty sure that the years do go more quickly as we get older. I cannot believe that 2026 is nearly upon us –a year when we look forward to lots of exciting Cursillo events; GB Ultreya will be taking place in Chichester and they are already busy making plans.

The GB Cursillo Conference takes place in May and looks to be an amazing event, taking place in a venue where we know we get excellent hospitality and facilities. There is more detail about the conference later in this copy of BACC Pages.

Attending This year's National Ultreya in Durham was a highlight for me. I also enjoyed visiting Chichester to celebrate with them their 25th anniversary. This also reflects a personal 25th celebration of my own business, an independent foster care agency focussing on helping children overcome significant childhood trauma. Again I cannot believe how those 25 years have flown.

It has been a year where I have had two complete knee replacements, and this has been hard to manage. Thankfully the knees are now almost good as new –I just need a new bionic body from my neck downwards –so if anyone knows of any surgeon undertaking such a procedure –be sure to let me know 😊 😊 I am pretty sure that there would be a good take up for this!!

Cursillo is and has been, for me, a life changing experience which supports through all life's trials and tribulations. Without Cursillo I would not be the person I am today, nor would I have developed the depth of faith that I enjoy with God and a knowledge that Christ is alongside me at all times, even when I do not actually feel His presence. The number of god incidences which have occurred in my day to day life are amazing. You simply have to stop and take note of them, as we tend to be so busy with day to day 'stuff' that we can miss His loving presence supporting and encouraging us/

I attended an Ultreya recently in my home area of St Asaph Diocese. There were only a handful of us who managed to make this face-to-face meetup, and it could have been disappointing for attendees that not more people had joined us. Nevertheless, the sharing from each group member was amazing –they all fitted in with each other, and without exception, people were sharing how they had experienced the Lord in their lives. I find it hard to put into words because it was a little while ago and memory for details fades. However, every single person there left feeling uplifted and absolutely inspired –a light that we were able to use back into our daily lives. Each person there had their own trials to manage, but meeting up with fellow Cursillistas is such a privilege. And I always find that I leave a meeting feeling a weight has been lifted from my shoulder. This is why it is so important to ensure that you are, at the very least, part of a small group, in your own dioceses, and that it meets regularly. Small groups nourish and sustain and Ultreyas are a way to spread God's love even wider.

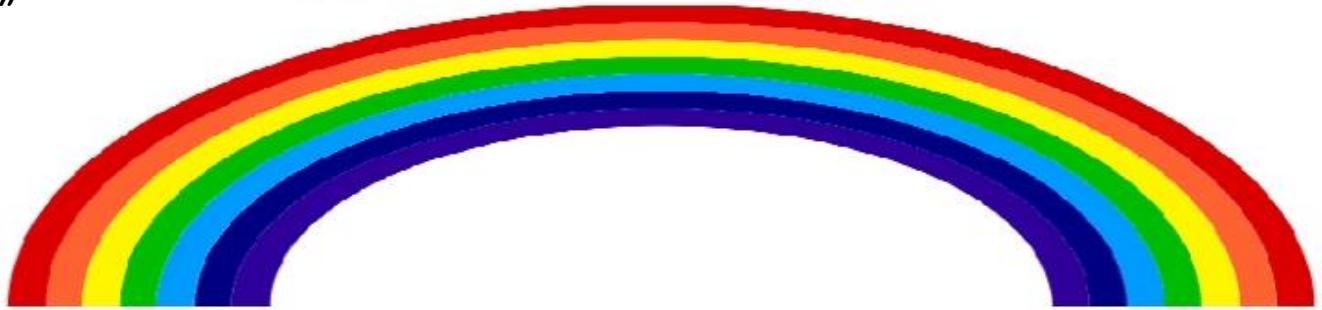

I wish for you and yours, a blessed and peaceful Christmas and a very Happy New Year 2026. Make the Cursillo Method your priority in 2026, weaving it into your daily life and devotions and sharing Cursillo benefits with anyone who will listen. We face trying times currently and Cursillo, the love it brings and spreads, is an excellent tool to combat indifference and hatred which so often seems to surround us.

Letter from National Spiritual Director Revd Sharon Guest

“Joy to the world the Lord has come”

Well not quite yet, the Lord will come and that's what we are preparing for during advent, that time leading up to Christmas.

I don't know about you, but for me Christmas always seems to come so unexpectedly, I'm never really prepared and everything seems such a rush, for many it is such an exciting time, everything lit up, decorations all around the house and of course the hope of things new, but for others like me, sometimes Christmas can feel too familiar.

Maybe we run ourselves ragged trying to get all the shopping done, promising to come to every carol singing opportunity that comes our way, sitting for hours writing Christmas cards, trying hard to remember the last known address of older members of our family, and then can you believe, forgetting to buy the wrapping paper, or does this only happen in our house?

We all know that Christmas comes at the same time each year, yet every year we get surprised and say how quickly it seems to be upon us.

We get so familiar with the church's message about preparation that we forget to prepare!

Maybe this Christmas could be an opportunity to do things differently, maybe we could take time to actually read the words of those great carols as we sing, and maybe we will listen intently as the nativity story unveils before our eyes, maybe we will take time to ask God to prepare our hearts for his coming into our world, and maybe each of us will be prepared for all he has in store for us, maybe we remember that we are also preparing to receive Christ into the manger of our hearts at Christmas time.

I hope and pray that Christmas will be a time of great joy as we share in the nativity and the hope that we have in Christ coming to us. So that when Christmas finally arrives, we will remember that we are celebrating the birth of the Saviour of the World.

Isaiah 9:6:

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace."

May your Christmas be full of joy and hope and your New Year filled with the love and peace of Christ.

Sharon

A PLEA FROM OUR WEBMASTER

LET ME KNOW

The webmaster does not have a crystal ball, so please ensure that when your diocese Cursillo secretariat changes members, that the new member or their appointee lets Stephen Bowring, the National Webmaster know. Generic e mail addresses are great, but without these being passed over to the new officer, e mails communication from BACC will go astray. Also Stephen is getting blamed for this which is grossly unfair. So please, secretariats, ensure that you have a system to ensure this does not happen in your dioceses.

PRAYER FOR YOUR CURSILLO EVENT

For all Lay rectors out there, planning your Cursillo – please remember to let the Webmaster Stephen, know the date, time and place of your Cursillo, and the name and details of your contact people –Palanca Secretary and Lay Rector in particular.

You will, from this, receive on going prayer, frequently from across the world which is invaluable for your event. In addition, you may receive palanca for the event itself, which can have a powerful impact.

STANDING COMMITTEE MEMBERS STILL URGENTLY NEEDED

Welcome to Duncan McCosh from Scotland Cursillo who has joined the Standing Committee as our new Secretary. I know people will be getting bored about this ongoing pleas, but we still require the following standing committee members as a matter of urgency. Standing Committee members are there to support all Dioceses Cursillo in practical ways and provides individuals who serve on committee with increased knowledge about the movement and an excellent opportunity to expand your own faith through this understanding.

- BACC Treasurer
- Publicity Officer
- Area BACC Reps for Wales and Marches,
- North East & Scotland
- Yorkshire, covering Leeds, Sheffield and York.

PRESIDENT ELECT NOMINEES NEEDED

Are you
our new President?

As Helen's term ends in May 2027 a president elect needs to be nominated and agreed in the May AGM. This person will then shadow whilst learning about the role, during the intervening period.

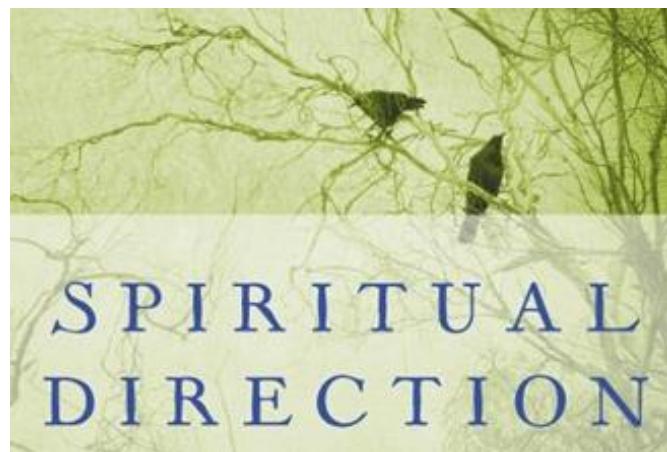

If you feel urged to look further into this interesting and crucial role please ask for more information. Application forms need to be countersigned by a Cursillista recommended & need to be sent to the President, Helen Taubman, by April 1st at the latest. Helen would be happy to talk through what the role can contain. Every president has their own way of undertaking the role. There is a job description available for anyone interested,

NATIONAL SPIRITUAL DIRECTOR ELECT

Rev'd Michael Bolley's application for the role will be taken to the AGM in May. This is a short synopsis about the wealth of knowledge and relevant experience that Michael will bring to the role: -

- A passion for Cursillo, born of more than forty years myself living the Cursillo method of Rule of Life,
- Spiritual Direction, Group Reunion and Ultreya, and seeing its fruitfulness in the lives of so many others.
- More than forty years' experience of leadership in the Cursillo movement, including active involvement in
- Establishing Southwark Cursillo and serving as Lay Rector of Southwark #3 in November 1988, playing a
- Playing a leading role in establishing Cursillo in the Diocese of London in 2000 and serving as founding Diocesan Spiritual Director.
- Serving as Spiritual Advisor on Cursillo weekends in five dioceses over the years.
- Previous experience in the role of NSD (then known as BACC Vice- President) from 2001 to 2004.
- An extensive knowledge and understanding of Cursillo, gained through personal experience and also thoroughly immersing myself in the foundational literature of the movement, including The Fundamental Ideas of the Cursillo Movement (1st, 2nd and 3rd editions) and various editions of the Leaders' Manual and the official Talk Outlines.
- Over thirty years of stipendiary ordained parochial ministry in a variety of contexts from leafy Metroland suburbia to inner-city multi-faith multi-cultural Southall, seeing Cursillo transform lives and build up the church in all these places.
- Considerable pastoral experience and the ability to offer a listening ear, theological reflection and spiritual counsel.
- The ability to articulate the essence of Cursillo to a variety of audiences, including devising and running clergy workshops on Cursillo which were successful in recruiting clergy who themselves became leaders in the movement.

My priority as NSD would be to support the President and BACC Standing Committee in enabling British Anglican Cursillo to face up together to the challenges of the present time, and through prayer, study and action to navigate our way to a fruitful, flourishing and sustainable future in which the Church embraces and benefits from the gift which God has given us in Cursillo.

GREAT NEWS FROM!

DERBY CURSILLO

25th Anniversary Celebration

Derby Anglican Cursillo were delighted to celebrate their 25th Anniversary on the 12th July 2025, held at St Mary's Church, Sawley. We were blessed with a beautiful summer day with Cursillistas travelling from far and wide to join us.

The Rev Sally Mason our Spiritual Director, led our Thanksgiving Service. Her inspiring talk gave us encouragement and hope. We first met Sally on Derby 1. She was a Lay Gofor then. We enjoyed singing some of our favourite hymns, with hearts full of praise.

The lawns of the church, under the trees, offered an ideal picnic area to enjoy a barbecue followed by homemade puddings and a celebration cake, during which we remembered the many wonderful friends we had made through Cursillo and how Cursillo had transformed our lives and helped our progression to do the Lord's service within our Churches.

ONE CURSILLISTAS STORY

This reflective sharing from Betty Thompson about her experience of her Cursillo may encourage others to share similarly inspirational items for future BACC Pages.

My Cursillo

My name is Betty Thompson, I attended Derby 6# weekend in 2002

I retired in 1999 and looked forward to new adventures.

Rosie offered me a Cursillo leaflet and asked if I would be interested. I didn't know what it was all about. 18 months passed before I thought the idea of a quiet weekend retreat might be interesting and asked if it was still possible to go, I was surprised when she was so pleased and immediately said yes.

The 'quiet' weekend I was expecting never transpired. It was full on. Listening, talking, craft work, and yet, we had peace too. We had wonderful relaxing meditations and prayer time. I was exhausted when I arrived home but no time to rethink my experience, my husband was waiting for his Sunday dinner and I was back in the kitchen again. I do believe over the following years he did begin to understand how much Cursillo meant to me.

Cursillo reshaped my Christian life and attending my first Ultreya and then staffing at weekends brought the weekend spark back. I shall never regret becoming a Cursillista I am inspired again and again when meeting in Group Prayer, or an Ultreya or any National Cursillo venue to be with sisters and brothers in Cursillo who hold the same visions and views the Lord leads us to do in our daily lives.

MY CURSILLO STORY

A reflection by Shirley Salisbury from St Asaph diocese –

About eleven years ago I was invited to a Cursillo meeting and I really felt that it would be the right thing to do to attend a 'weekend'. Whilst always a Christian, This is when I found that God wanted me to do something with my life, I just had to find out what! I found that Cursillo brought me out of my shell and gradually the quiet, timid Shirley bloomed. You know what they say ' bloom where you are planted', and over the years I tried a variety of things to try and find my mission for God. I spoke to a few friends and sought their wisdom and together, we came up with some ideas.

Eventually I got the go ahead to become the 'hard copy' palanca secretary as well as making cards for fundraising and coming up with other ideas as the St Asaph 'fundraiser'. Making my own cards meant that I would receive requests for people who needed a visible prayer, such as after a bereavement or illness. This expanded to not only Cursillistas, but to people within our Mission Area, which meant that I was also having a hand in advertising Cursillo more widely. A fellow Cursillista and myself also took leaflets to every church in the Mission Area. We quickly expanded this so that whenever there were any ordinations in the pipeline, I would make cards for each ordinand in both St Asaph and neighbouring Bangor diocese and each would get an individual card. Many, I later learned, knew nothing about Cursillo so I was pleased to have identified another possible marketing ‘tool’.

I told them my fellow secretariat members that I would never be able to lead a tea although I loved serving on team many times. However, one day, my name came to the top of the list and I was invited to become Lay Rector for a Cursillo. Through my card making, attending GB Ultreyas each year until I became less able to get out and other Cursillo activities, I have made many dear friends far and wide. Many collect old cards and other art materials to enable me to carry on making cards to send on as palanca. I am very grateful for all these donations. I receive a lot of feedback from people who receive the cards, saying how happy it made them to receive one – often lifting their spirits at a difficult time in their life. In turn, I am happy to know that they like them and it makes my life enriched to know that I am working for God in my own little corner.

DIRECTORY OF PRIESTS AVAILABLE TO HELP ON TEAM ON CURSILLO WEEKENDS

Our National Spiritual Director, holds a register of volunteer Cursillo priests who are willing to be considered to staff on team for other dioceses than their own. If you are such a priest, willing to travel and serve on other Cursillos, please do let Sharon know. Her details are at the back of BACC Pages

THE AUTHENTIC CURSILLO no secrecy

When you are asked to describe what goes on during The Cursillo (known as ‘The Weekend’ but altered to The Cursillo in the advent of Cursillo’s taking place in all sorts of variations) there are no boundaries around what you can share. Of course, it may be better to hold back on describing some of the surprises you include in your own dioceses. However, what you can and should share, are that The Cursillo includes 15 short talks, 5 meditations and 3 eucharists (added as an essential part of the gathering)

If you are encouraging and supporting someone to join a Cursillo you should explain that this is a reflective process. You can explain what the talks and meditations will be about. Some Dioceses have their own leaflet to hand out about the contents (London Cursillo is one such example)

A BEACON OF YOUTHFUL HOPE IN NORWICH PRISON

The Kairos Torch Prisoner Christian Rehabilitation Programme is about to start in HMP Norwich. Dr Ian Watson, County Ecumenical Officer, who attended an evening of talks on the initiative reports.

Kairos Torch Prison Ministry for 18-25 year-olds - Written by a Cursillista from Taverham.

This adventure with God that began on a hot summers Saturday evening in June 2025 in an Airbnb in the Lincolnshire fens miles from anyone I knew. After a long, lovely day at a stitching festival, I was just dozing off when I heard a voice calling "Jane, Jane". I was spooked! It was 2am!

How can someone be calling my name?

When I calmed down, I realised just like Samuel in the Bible Old Testament (1 Samuel Chapter 3) I had heard the audible voice of God and out loud I said, "Ok I hear you, I will do what you are calling me too, if you show me the way".

I determined at that moment not to return to the stitching festival the next day but to go to the 9:30am service at the C of E church just down the road.

They sang four hymns, one of which was, "Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?" I smiled and, in my heart, said, "OK Lord, I hear you, you lead I'll follow, but you will have to show me where we are going!"

The following Saturday we had a gathering for members of our local Cursillo (the best kept secret in the Anglican church!) and we had a visitor called Richard Stephens spoke about the Kairos Prison Ministry. He was seeking volunteers to be part of a pioneering team to go into Norwich Prison with the Kairos Torch Ministry for 18–25-year-old offenders as it had never been run anywhere in the UK before.

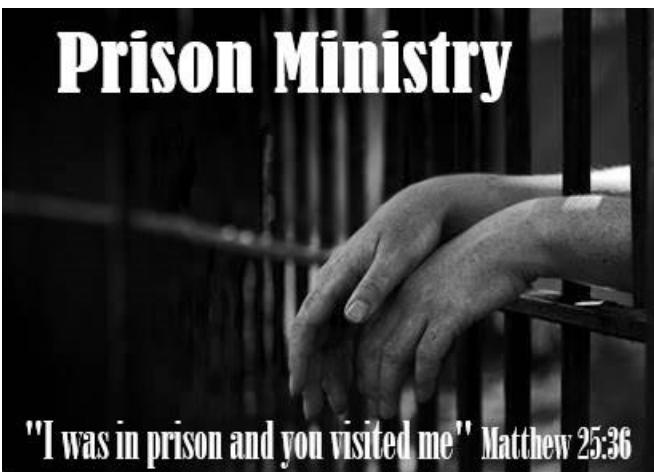

I knew this was why God had called my name as I was moved to tears as Richard spoke. I signed up. The rest they say is history!

I was selected to join the team at a meeting in Cambridge and had to attend a residential training weekend and two more training days

Because we had to experience for ourselves what the young men would experience. We shared our life stories and were completely open with each other which was very healing for us.

Our final team of 12 included a chap who travelled from USA and two Kairos newbies from Norwich. The others were all experienced in Kairos for adult prisoners.

Prison Ministry

"I was in prison and you visited me" Matthew 25:36

Our 3 days in Norwich prison were challenging, amazing and life changing, not just for the me and the team but for the chaps who attended. We started with 10 names. 9 arrived and 2 left after first 30 minutes. The other 7 stuck with us, and we watched as amazing changes took place in them. These 7 became known as the "Norwich 7".

None of this would have been possible without the tireless efforts of the Prison Chaplaincy because they know that behind every prison door is a broken heart and Jesus heals the broken hearted, a heart hardened by abuse can be softened by divine love, a memory distorted by guilt will respond to an offer of divine forgiveness. A mind that is confused can be clarified by divine wisdom, a conscience that is seared can be renewed by the guidance of the Holy Spirit and trust that has been destroyed by abuse can be healed by human kindness offered over a sustained period.

Some of the team will continue to meet with the "Norwich 7" on a weekly basis to mentor them and help them continue the new path they have found.

The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step, and the motto of Kairos is:

"Listen, Listen, Love,".

Love is the key that unlocks the chains and enables the change because in every situation.... Love wins.

For more information about Kairos see

<https://kairosprisonministry.org.uk/>

Do you know you have a Saviour who loves you too, regardless of your past? His name is Jesus.

Why not find out more about him today just like the "Norwich 7" and start on a new path.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARIES

WORDS FROM A SERMON

With kind permission from Rev'd Jonathon Smith –Church in Wales

If ever I used the word 'hate' as a child, my mother would not be pleased. That's a very strong word, she would counsel. You should hardly ever use it. We have heard much of the word recently especially in relation to yesterday's terrible shooting at a synagogue in Manchester. The Chief Rabbi said of the attack '...it is the tragic result of an unrelenting wave of Jew hatred.'

There is something menacing about the word 'hate' which suggests violence and revenge. In the bible, we do see the word used. Towards the end of that beautiful Psalm 139 it appears in verses 21 & 22. The hatred here is turned on those who speak of God maliciously, those who rise up against God. In Luke 14.26 when Jesus talks of the cost of following him, he tells those who come to him who do not hate their own family members that they cannot be his disciples. In the psalm, the word is used to show loathing and distaste for anything which opposes the ways of a loving God.

Jesus uses it to speak of the intense loyalty we should have for him compared to other loyalties. Hate does not have to be about bloodletting, just a strong carefully held view especially against all that is wrong. As society seeks to address the crimes of those who turn hate into violence and abuse, we should be careful to allow expression of opinions we disagree with in the right contexts. We do well to heed Peter's advice: 'Above all, maintain constant love for one another, for love covers a multitude of sins.' 1 Peter 4.8

What other wise words of advice does The bible give us about discrimination? These are but a few:-

Galatians 5:14 ES

For the whole law is fulfilled in one word: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself

James 2:2-4

For if a man wearing a gold ring and fine clothing comes into your assembly, and a poor man in shabby clothing also comes in, and if you pay attention to the one who wears the fine clothing and say, "You sit here in a good place," while you say to the poor man, "You stand over there," or, "Sit down at my feet," have you not then made distinctions among yourselves and become judges with evil thoughts?

1 Samuel 16:7

But the LORD said to Samuel, "Do not look on his appearance or on the height of his stature, because I have rejected him. For the LORD sees not as man sees: man looks on the outward appearance, but the LORD looks on the heart."

Romans 13:10

"Love does no harm to a neighbour. Therefore love is the fulfilment of the law."

THE BIBLE WORKING FOR US

Your mission – to serve

'This is the Gospel ... of which I, Paul, have become a servant' Colossians 1:23

Personal mission –commit to it

We have already heard from other Cursillistas in this edition about how they discerned God's ministry within themselves. This is a personal journey where waiting on the Lord can sometimes become frustrating. Nevertheless, remember how Christ used to spend a great deal of time alone, waiting upon his Father to guide him on the next steps of His journey on earth.

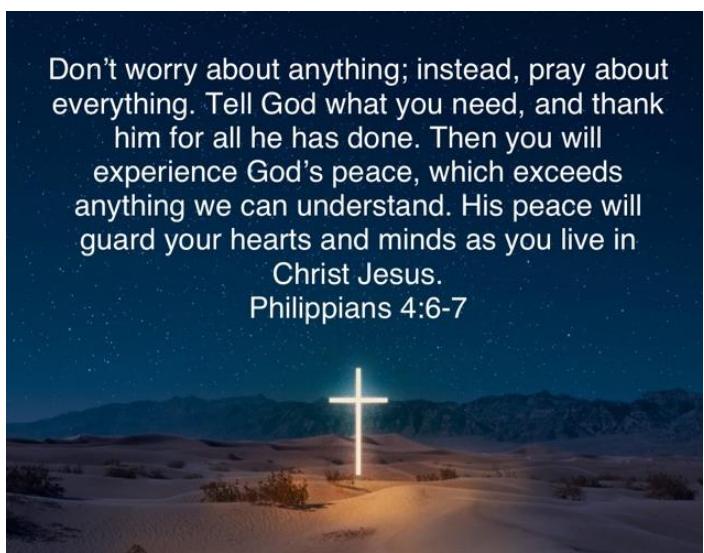

We ask - 'who am I? What is my calling? This is not to achieve greatness, it is to offer ourselves as a vessel of service. Whatever your calling, be it a pastor of a huge church or a lay member, in God's eyes you are no more, and no less, than a servant. In God's kingdom class distinctions do not count. 'There is neither Jew, nor Greek, slave nor free man... make nor female... for you are all one in Christ Jesus Galatians 3:28

We are servants called to do the will of God, wherever he appoints us to serve. And that is a good thing! In being a servant there is relief from the 'pressure to perform'. No-one has the right to judge you except your Master. 'Who are you to judge the servant of another? To his own master he stands or fails Romans 14:4

We should be concerned with what pleases God, not people. He alone can evaluate our service. Jesus came to serve His Father, saying 'I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which has sent me' John 5:30

The Green Man

I walked amid the greenwood trees
On moss so soft and springy
With campion swaying in the wind and
Foxgloves striving to reach the canopy

The buzzing sound of insects in flight
And birds in tuneful melody
I searched for signs of elves and sprites
But none could I find though I looked most earnestly

I saw the dappled sunlight
Bringing life to the dark brown earth
The fallow deer, a fox and a badger
Filled my stroll with wonderment and mirth.

Some say that the Green Man reigns supreme Keeps watch and hold sway over all.
But I contend a Hallowed Hand as I journey through
This God's own Cathedral.

TELLING OUR STORIES

We have had some wonderful sharing's throughout this edition and thank you so much for those. Jesus set us a strong example in storytelling, which can be one of the most powerful ways of explaining to others, what Cursillo has meant for us as an individual and how it can help and support priests in their day to day running of the church, and how it can make leaders and disciples of people who are not confident to do so. Whether ordained or laity, please do share your story by sending it to the editor. Whether you tell a story through prose, or story style, it will touch the hearts of others, sometimes profoundly.
